

June 12, 2002

The following data reflects Interstate Van Lines safety rating:

	Vehicle Out-of-Service	Driver Out-of-Service	Hazmat Out-of-Service
Interstate Van Lines:	12.3 %	6.2 %	0%
National Average:	23.7 %	8.0%	6.1%

- Interstate Van Lines has had 3 DOT-reportable accidents and over 8 million miles driven during the previous 48 months.
- Interstate Van Lines overall accident rate is 1.6 per every 1 million miles driven, compared to the Household Goods Industry accident rate of 4.5 per every 1 million miles driven.
- Interstate Van Lines ISS-2 Inspection Value is 30, compared to the Household Goods Industry average of 84.

Source: Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration; SaferSys.org

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John C. Boyle". The signature is stylized with large, flowing loops.

John C. Boyle
Safety and Fleet Manager
Interstate Van Lines